

Name:

Citing PRINT Sources

(A)

Book (one author)

Example: Parson, Alexander. Amazing Spiders. New York: Scholastic Inc., 2010.

Author's Last Name,	First Name.	Book Title.	Place of Publication:	Publisher(company),	Copyright Date.

Book (no author)

Example: Volcanoes. London: Heinemann, 2009.

Book Title.	Place of Publication:	Publisher (company),	Copyright Date.

Book (two, three or more authors)

Ex. - Two Authors: McKissack, Patricia, and Fredrick McKissack. African-American Inventors. Brookfield: Scholastic Press, 2009.

Ex. - Three Authors: Thompsen, Adam, Mary Jenson, and Dori Graham. Trains. Chicago: Capstone Press, 2007.

Ex. - More than Three Authors: Adams, Barry, et al. Encyclopedia of Great Civilizations. New York: Capstone Press, 2010.

Author Names.	Book Title.	Place of Publication (City):	Publisher (company),	Copyright Date.

Citing PRINT Sources

(B)

Encyclopedia Article

Example: Minch, Edwin W. "Spiders." World Book Encyclopedia. Chicago, 2010 ed.

Author's Last Name,(if there is one)	First Name.	"Article Title."	Encyclopedia Title.	Place of Publication,	Copyright Date.

Magazine Article

Example: Churchman, Deborah. "Be a Nature Detective." Ranger Rick. March 2010: 28-31.

Author's Last Name,	First Name.	"Article Title."	Magazine Title.	Issue Date (Day, Month Year):	Page #s.

Newspaper Article

Example: Stern, Henry. "Texas Animals in Danger." Houston Chronicle. 9 Apr. 2010.
D01.

Author's Last Name,	First Name.	"Article Title."	Newspaper Title.	Date of Paper: